

William Bohnyak
Orange County Sheriff's Office
Vermont

Sheriff for 12 years and in law enforcement for a total of over 34 years. I started from the ground up working my way through the ranks and now elected Sheriff. I am a graduate of the Monmouth County, NJ Police academy, Vermont Police Academy, National Sheriff's Institute 95th Class and the Rural Executive Management Institute 28th Class.

I hold several instructor levels. However, my main focus has been Domestic and Sexual violence against woman and children. In October of 2008 I created a Special Investigation Unit for Orange County.

I am currently on the Board of Directors for the National Sheriff's Association. A board member on the National Coalition on Violence Against Animals (NCOVAA), Co-chair of the NSA Animal cruelty and Abuse committee, Vice-chair of the NSA Northern Border task force committee. I am also a board member of the NSA Domestic Violence and Congressional Affairs committees.

Current President of the Vermont Sheriff's Association, Chair of the Vermont Safety Highway Alliance. I am also on the State Policy board of Special Investigates Units (Sex Crimes), Bias-free policing, Internet Crimes against Children and the Governors Community Violence Prevention Task Force

I am a board member of Our Lady of the Angel's Church Parish and several community organizations such as the Prevention Partnership, Restorative Justice program, Orange County Domestic, Sexual Violence committee and the past president of Randolph Rotary sunrise club.

Since March 2011 every Wednesday morning from 0815- 0830 I am on local radio station WCVR Randolph, VT. I provide updates on County wide crimes, highway safety tips, prescription drug abuse driving factor behind burglaries, domestic violence issues, sex crimes and how we have a SIU and special investigators. Just about everything with law enforcement in our communities and beyond.
